

From 29 November for the season of Advent:

The Ready Steady Slow campaign:

www.whywearewaiting.com

will send out e-mails through Advent encouraging a greener approach to the season.

5 December: The Wave (formerly March in December) Ecumenical Service and Climate Change March

Rita is organizing a coach for this which is cheaper than train travel: £10. Leaving Reading Central Station at 8.30am Woodley (Woodford Park) 8.45 and Maidenhead (Sports Centre, Braywick Road) 9.15.

The coach will arrive at Central Methodist Hall in time for the service with Rowan Williams and Vincent Nichols.

Contact Rita at rita.belletty@talktalk.net

9 December: Age of Stupid

Tilehurst Globe and the Green Apostles present The Age of Stupid, "the climate blockbuster" starring Pete Postlethwaite, Wednesday 9 December at 7.00 pm in Tilehurst Methodist Church. Admission free.

Retiring donations in aid of our church refurbishment fund (Target 21) (courtesy of Tilehurst Globe).

There will be a discussion after the film at 8.45 pm chaired by Peter McManners, a local author on sustainability. Please come and support this event. Children under 12 should be accompanied by an adult.

More information about the film can be found at www.ageofstupid.net
<<http://www.ageofstupid.net>>

This screening is part of the work of Reading Christian Ecology Link, to show the film across the churches. Reading Islamic Trustees for the Environment organised the film to be shown last summer. Both these groups emerged from Greening Faiths an event on Faith & the environment in April led by Reading Faith Forum.